“Dot to Dot”

SYNOPSIS

This series revolves around cases investigated by the Green Dot Detective Agency and its two partners, Maggie Santiago and Robert Belmont. The show's storyline begins with the reversal of fortune of Maggie Santiago, a former model who finds herself bankrupt after her accountant embezzles all of her liquid assets. She is left saddled with several failing businesses formerly maintained as tax write-offs, one of which is the “City on the Hill Detective Agency, helmed by the carefree Robert Belmont.

Robert persuades Maggie to keep the business and run it as a partnership. The agency is renamed Green Dot Investigations because Maggie was most famous for being the model for the Green Dot Shampoo Company. In many episodes, she is recognized as “the Green Dot girl,” if not by name.

DIGITAL ASSETS

I created a large, multi-layer Photoshop file that I could then move and manipulate in After Effects.
